IN A FEW WORDS

Dear Triathletes,

Okay, here we go again! Here's another opportunity to set those goals and then go for it. What's it gonna take? There's the obvious; swimming, biking, running. Then there's the next level; equipment, nutrition, technique and strength training. However, it's possible the most important aspect of your season's preparation is your detailed attention to mental focus. Believe you can and you'll find a way! See ya out there.

Sincerely,

Mark H. Wilson-Triathlon Coach

Featured Athlete: Jeanne Roth

By Mark H. Wilson

Wouldn't it be great to be a rookie triathlete again? What kind of bike would you get? What about wetsuit? Or a coach? Would you start small or go for it and enter an Ironman in your first year? These days it's "So many races, so little time!" Our Featured Athlete of the Month probably set a new record for Most Triathlons in a Rookie Season by completing races ranging from Sprint to half-iron distance. Jeanne Roth knows no boundaries when it comes to her quest for tri-accomplishments; and she's got big plans for '05, as well. What makes her tick? Let's find out.

Jeanne was born in a northern suburb of Chicago; Evanston, Illinois. As a child she practiced ballet and ice skating before discovering soccer in the 5th grade with a friend. She attended Barrington High School (Barrington, IL) and graduated in 1991 where she played basketball and volleyball. Jeanne dreaded the pre-season for soccer because she "HATED" running. According to her, all they did for soccer was run! Jeanne's higher education was at Indiana University (Bloomington, IN) where she majored in Studio Art and was complete in 1995. Then she went to the Culinary Institute of America and finished-up in July of 2000.

Volume V, Issue No. 1 January 2005

Jeanne currently resides in the City of Poughkeepsie in a Victorian house that's on the National Register of Historic Homes; the house is 136 years old. (Wow!! Almost as old as Grandpa Baker!) She has been married to Donald Roth for 6 years and has no kids, but 2 Himalayan cats. Jeanne has her own handmade jewelry company called Zoey B's (after the cats). She designs, manufactures and markets handmade jewelry. Jeanne has also worked as a graphic designer for firms such as; KPMG Peat Marwick (a "Big 3" accounting firm) and Spectrum Graphics and Print (Poughkeepsie, NY), and has worked in the restaurant industry as a chef/manager at Maxime's of Westchester County (Granite Springs, NY) and New World Home Cooking (Woodstock, NY). She has worn many hats to date, but considers making jewelry her niche. Jeanne's hobbies include; sleeping, cooking, church youth group, downhill skiing, tennis, mountain biking, hiking and camping. Now we know why sleeping is high on the list!

Jeanne's first triathlon was the Harriman Sprint Series #1 last summer. "I freaked out!" She said. Her goggles leaked and she started to cry because she was now in last place. Jeanne's husband Donald was with her and was quick to quote from the movie A League of Their Own "There is no crying in baseball." It helped, after a couple of minutes she got the goggles on and finished the swim, then bee-lined-it directly to the restroom. (Was that part of the course?) Then on the bike she dropped the chain 5 times not knowing to lighten-up on the pedals while shifting going uphill. On the run, Jeanne did wonderfully and even passed some people! She loved having Donald with her and highly recommends that everyone have a buddy for their first triathlon experience. Her goal was to finish and not be last; mission accomplished!

Jeanne identifies herself as very "L-A-Z-Y"! Everyone thinks she's nuts for doing triathlon, especially her family, because they know how much she hates running and also regarding her decadent indulgence of Cheetos. Also, she had a freaky ankle-buster while walking in Chicago about 7 years ago that she finally recovered from; thanks to exceptional PT. So her family's a bit confused with all the current activity in her life. And it's all Donald's fault! He had done a few tri's previously and wanted to get involved again. He encouraged his initially reluctant wife while purchasing a wetsuit... "but what if I don't like triathlons or can't do them"...that she'd be fine. (Well done, Donald!)

Triathlon, for Jeanne, has become a great form of therapy...and just as expensive! "I feel like I should have been doing this sooner in my life." The common struggle that she feels with the other athletes gives her a sense of belonging and connection in such a supportive atmosphere. It helps her to overcome the laziness, too. "I am amazed by how much I can push myself!" This experience leads Jeanne to share and encourage everyone she knows to "tri" the sport. Besides, there are all those endorphins and the magnificent weight control to boot!

Hudson Valley Triathlon Club

Volume V, Issue No. 1 January 2005

Jeanne's had one phenomenal debut in triathlon! In fact, she won the 2004 HVTC Rookie of the Year. She completed the Harriman Sprint Series, Highland Triathlon, Monster Challenge Triathlon, 3 HVTC Summer Tri-Series, Kingston Duathlon "ugh, never again!", Timberman Sprint, Greenwich Sprint, Genesis Adventure Race #2, Dutchess County 1/2 Marathon, Saratoga Lake Triathlon, Chicago Marathon 4:56.24 and the Great Floridian 1/2 Ironman in 7:23.40. It looks like next year may be more of the same. Get this, "I bought a big calendar with colored markers for my training, races and goals. I have everything outlined for 2005 already. I'm going to do this season right with the proper training and hope that I get my nutrition down by Lake Placid." She's an animal!! And the S.O.S. is on the schedule, too. It's a good idea to figure out the nutrition thing (if that's even possible), especially since Jeanne always feels like she's gonna throw up before a race. Mostly it's just fears and doubts such as; "What am I doing?" or "I can't do this?" and "I'm nuts..." etc, etc. Hell, that's how you know you're a triathlete! Regardless, it's going to be a very special day at Ironman USA at Lake Placid this July 24th because it's Jeanne's birthday. How neat is that?! Can you imagine completing your first Ironman on your 21st birthday? Oh, alright! It'll be her 32nd. Can't wait to see it!

Jeanne wanted to express this, as well; "I am so happy to have this club and the great friends I have made through it. I am looking forward to next season when I'll be kicking everyone's asses!" Yikes, sounds like she's been takin' a few courses at the Henry Collins School of Ass Kickin'. More power to ya! Thanks, Jeanne.
