IN A FEW WORDS

Dear HVTC,

As the cooler air seeps into the Hudson Valley the trunk of winter gear begins to open in preparation for those beautiful rides/runs in the Catskills/Shawangunk Mountains. Most who have lived here for awhile truly feel they reside in one of the loveliest places on the planet; and I agree with them. It makes it easy to be a triathlete, schedule for today; swim, bike and run! See ya out there.

Sincerely,
Mark H. Wilson
Professional Life & Triathlon Coach

HVTC Featured Athlete: Barbara Ferrante

By Mark H. Wilson

For women, it seems as though beauty, fashion and athletics are becoming very mainstream lately; Dara Torres, Amanda Beard, Jenny Fletcher, Gail Devers, Somer Sanders, Serena Williams and Laura Bennett; come to mind. Can toughness come in such a pretty package? Duh! Do you know anyone who does their nails prior to a triathlon? Do you know anyone who shaves their legs before a race (okay, let's leave-out the men!)? Lastly, do know anyone who is a professional beauty consultant and races triathlon as hard as she can? Well, please meet the lovely (but toughy) Barbara Ferrante; and don't call her Babs 'cause she'll really give it to you at the next club race! Let's find-out what lead our Featured Athlete of the Month to triathlon.

Volume VIII, Issue No. 101 October 2009

Barbara was born in Goshen, New York and was raised in Greenwood Lake, New York; she attended Tuxedo High School and graduated in 1989. She went-on to receive a degree in cosmetology and unlike her present-day athletic lifestyle; she did not play any sports in high school. What interested her most was getting into trouble and having fun; she majored in “badness” which, of course, meant good at the time. After high school, Barbara traveled the east coast working for Saullo Hair Salon in Ft. Lauderdale, Florida. She also worked in North Carolina and Georgia. These days, Barbara’s celebrating 15 years working in Goshen and now has over 20 years in the beauty industry. She’s very grateful to have picked the right profession that suits her because she has always enjoyed her job. Barbara is married to her husband Mike who is also a member of HVTC. They live in Goshen and have no children; unless you consider their dog Milo (a six pound Yorkie) who is “the” boss of the house. In her next life, Barbara wants to come back as him. “Yeah, could you scratch my belly some more; a little to the left, please? Ahh!!” What a life!

Regarding hobbies, Barbara loves to decorate, paint, and garden; although, since beginning triathlon she doesn’t do too much else these days because there’s just not enough time. The truth be told, she’d rather go for a run, jump on her bike or do a swim. Barbara also enjoys CrossFit and has been doing it for 1 year. Her husband who’s been enjoying the exercise for a couple of years inspired her to try it; they both really like it!

Barbara’s first race experience was a 5k in the summer of 2007. Her training began with a jog to the mailbox and back; then, to the end of road and back. At that point, it looked like the end of her running career. Oh, well, back to the eye-lashes! However, the man of the house announced he was gonna do a local 5k in Middletown; Barbara said she’d like to do it, too. “Bwaah! You don’t run,” says, Mike. Uh, oh; wrong thing to say! Barbara said, “I run...to the end of the road and back.” Silence. Then Mike says emphatically, “YOU WILL NEVER FINISH!” Well, that day she ran her first 5k and it was the longest 31 minutes of her life. “I thought I was going to die...I knew he was waiting at the finish line and if I had to crawl across that finish line (which I thought might actually happen) I was going to finish.” Good for you, Girl!

It was through one of Barbara’s clients that she heard of this gal named Barbara Sessa; HVTC-er and CrossFit Extraordinaire. Barbara began training with her and that’s when it all started. In July 2008, Barbara bought a bike and began taking swimming lessons with Coach Sessa. Regarding Barbara’s swimming skills, this is how she puts it; “God Bless Barbara Sessa!” ‘Nough said! Coach Sessa practically held Barbara’s hand for her first triathlon experience. It was the 2008 HVTC Summer Tri-Series #4; Barbara remembers standing by the lake looking at her coach and saying “I think I’m gonna throw up.” No worries; she loved it beyond words and was totally hooked. Phew! That was close. Thanks, Coach!

Barbara's come a long way since that first tri-encounter and has raced well, too; 2009 HVTC Summer Tri-Series, Pawling Triathlon and West Point Triathlon. In fact, Barbara is the reigning 2009 HVTC Summer Tri-Series Champion; because of her consistency, she earned enough points for the overall Series victory. Nice! However, initially not everyone was as enthused about Barbara and her husband's tri-mania! Barbara's mom was coming for a visit in July; when she arrived and saw all the training she and Mike were doing, she sat down the two of them and said "This is too much, all this stuff you do. I think you have an addiction and you need to get it under control." Sound familiar?! Despite Barbara and Mike's laughter, her mom was sincerely concerned; healthy bodies and all...disgusting! Bravely, they took her to Wilson State Park to watch the club race. Get this; she was so excited she was beside herself!!! Barbara can't remember her mother getting that excited about anything...ever!!! Her mother couldn't believe how much fun it was and how warm and friendly everyone treated her (thanks, Folks!). That was the end of any intervention. Thank goodness!

Barbara likes triathlon because you can challenge yourself and she loves the energy she gets from everyone around the sport. She enjoys training with all her "girls" she's gotten to know through HVTC; it makes training fun. Barbara's established a group of friends that she thinks is simply amazing; incredible people. Her goal for the future is to become stronger and faster; for 2010, she plans to do more sprint races and an Olympic distance triathlon by the end of the summer. Barbara would like to thank Barb Sessa for everything she has done for her. "She is a great person and I couldn't have asked for a better coach." Now, regarding those cuticles. Thanks, Barbara!
